ORLANDO - Real Property Specialists, Inc President Inducted in UCF hall of fame

– Six notable business alumni were honored on October 3rd during a dinner among 200 guests. They were chosen based on their career achievements and dedication to the University of Central Florida College of Business. Alan C. Charron, '84, president of Real Property Specialists, Inc. of Orlando, was among the six inducted.

Alan's firm has been recognized as a "Firm of the Year" and has also been recognized for being in the top 20 property management and brokerage companies in Central Florida. In addition to the many companies Alan manages, he started "Retailer One-on-One" ten years ago. This nationally recognized program has helped propel his company into being one of the local leaders in the industry.

Alan's community involvement includes having served as past President of Habitat for Humanity of Osceola County as well as past President of the Central Florida Commercial Real Estate Society. He has also been recognized by the Orlando Sentinel for his special assistance with the local Boy Scouts. In addition, he has assisted other charitable organizations through his Retailer One on One company, and has supported the Institute for Economic Competitiveness College of Business Administration at the University of Central Florida.
